403.615 Spirituality for Ministry

NQF level: 6
Credit Value: 15

DELIVERY MODE

Auckland, Christchurch and CDL

COURSE DESCRIPTION

This course builds on the topics and spiritual disciplines introduced in 401 Formation. The focus is on developing approaches to life and ministry which will help to maintain balance, sustainability and growth in ourselves and others. The term 'ministry' is used here in the broad sense of employing our gifts and our time for God's service, whatever our context.

LEARNING OUTCOMES

By the end of this course, students will be able to:

1. Explain and apply to themselves at least one model of self-understanding.
2. Reflect on their personal experience of, and readiness to embrace, at least one of the spiritual challenges of life and ministry.
3. Describe and evaluate strategies for sustainable spiritual health and growth, in relation to at least one person with significant experience of Christian ministry.
4. Discuss a chosen issue of relevance to ministry and spirituality, demonstrating skills of research, critical analysis and synthesis.
