ASSESSMENT TASKS, DUE DATES AND LEARNING HOURS

The requirements of the course are as follows:

- 1) Completion of assigned weekly pre-reading and blog (on Moodle) (35%). This blog will be visible to other students as you demonstrate personal observations and reflection on assigned reading. Reading and blog should be completed prior to class for that week.

Learning Outcomes: 1, 2, 3, 5

Grading Criteria:

- a) Evidence of completion of and interaction with required pre-reading.
- b) Consistent reflection as evidenced in blog entries.
- c) Participation in class discussions and activities.

Detailed instructions for these readings are available separately in Assignment 1: Set Readings and Responses document.

- 2) Integration project of - 1800 words (40%). Due: 19th April

Learning Outcomes: 1, 2, 5

Grading Criteria:

- Clear and careful analysis of relevant issues in relation to an appropriate organization
- Integration of Biblical foundation with an appropriate response
- Personal reflection and application
- Sufficient reading and research evident; referencing and bibliography
- Communication & Presentation: Clarity, arrangement of ideas, spelling, grammar.

Choose one of the following NGOs or mission agencies;

World Vision,
Tear Fund,
Oxfam,
Salvation Army,
Christians Against Poverty,
Island Reach (YWAM),
Amnesty International,
Refugee Services,
Red Cross
Prison Fellowship
Habitat for Humanity.

Describe the agency and what this agency is doing in response to one of the five global issues: (urbanisation, poverty, globalization, wars/violence, or disease) in one country

Discuss: some of the factors that have contributed to this issue in this locality and comment on whether or not the strategies used by the agency appear to have been effective or not and why.

Explore : how the Biblical themes of redemption, God's reign, and Christ's call to compassion and justice speak to the global issue you have chosen. What scripture passages provide insight for us? What might a compassionate and just response look like in light of these passages?

Apply: How will awareness of this issue practically impact how you think and act? Name some specific gifts and talents you possess and identify ways these can be used to express the gospel in addressing the needs you have identified in this project.

Due end of Study Week. These should be summated via Moodle.

3) Reflective essay - 1200 words (25%). Due: 14th June

Learning Outcomes: 1, 3, 4, 5 Grading Criteria: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Well presented summary of interview material covering all 3 questions</li><li>• Perceptive analysis of organization</li><li>• Understanding of ideas presented by Ward &amp; Dixon</li><li>• Personal reflection and application</li><li>• Communication &amp; Presentation: Clarity, spelling, grammar, referencing and bibliography</li></ul>

- a) Reflect: Re-read Village without Walls page 72 then read “Christendom, clericalism, church and context: finding categories of connexion in a culture without a Christian memory” Stimulus, Vol. 10, No. 1, Feb. 2002, pp. 52-60_by Kevin Ward.

Note the categories of belonging, believing and behaving and the order both writers argue for. Reflect on these themes.

- b) Profile: Interview one key leader of a church (this can be your own). Use the following three questions to structure your interview.
- 1) How are relationships strengthened in this church?
  - 2) How are people’s beliefs in God deepened?
  - 3) How are people encouraged to live out their faith?
- c) Integrate: Write a reflective essay, beginning with a short description of the church you profiled.
Structure your essay around following three questions:
- What did you discover? Summarise your findings on each of the three questions.
  - Where do think the strengths of the church you profiled lie?
  - What is your personal response to the issues raised by Dixon and Ward? In what ways might this invite us to reshape the way we journey with people as they come to know Christ? How do you think God is calling you to be part of this process?

LEARNING HOURS and GRADE WEIGHTING

Class time	36 hours
Pre-reading, reflection and blogging time	48 hours	35%
Project	42 hours	40%
