COURSE DESCRIPTION

The integration of biblical, theological and management perspectives for church leaders and pastors. Students will critically evaluate a range of approaches and work toward a personal philosophy of church leadership.

LEARNING OUTCOMES

At the end of the course, students should:

1. be able to demonstrate an in-depth understanding of theological and biblical themes relating to pastoral leadership and management
2. have assessed and carefully analysed their own personal leadership style, and show understanding and discernment in how to facilitate leadership development in others
3. have developed an insightful personal philosophy of ministry statement, relating to leadership and management in both the church and wider Christian ministry
4. be able to demonstrate competence in critically analysing and applying the literature available in the field of Christian leadership and management
5. be able to show understanding of how to apply effective methods of leading and managing change in a church or Christian organisation
