

LIDLAW COLLEGE

Te Wananga Amorangi

BACHELOR OF TEACHING (PRIMARY) & WORLDVIEW STUDIES

856.515 Pedagogy and Practice 1 Course Outline

NQF Level: 5
Credit Value: 15

DELIVERY MODE

Auckland

COURSE DESCRIPTION

In accordance with the Professional Practice Manual this course introduces students to the complexities of classroom teaching. They begin the transition from student to teacher by being actively involved in all aspects of classroom life. Observation skills of the demographic characteristics of the learning environment, the teacher and the learner are embedded in this course. Limited teaching practice is undertaken under the guidance of the associate teacher. Reflections are recorded and discussed.

GRADUATING TEACHER STANDARDS

4 a-f; 5 a-c; 6 a-e; 7a-d.

LEARNING OUTCOMES

Students will be able to:

- a. develop and utilise observational skills and analyse observation data about children's learning and behaviour
- b. demonstrate awareness of the multiplicity of learning experiences in a classroom;
- c. demonstrate awareness of the complexities of a teacher's role;
- d. demonstrate ability to establish and maintain professional relationships;
- e. actively participate in the learning environment under the supervision of the associate teacher;
- f. demonstrate an emerging awareness of teaching ethics and Christian worldview;
- g. demonstrate an emerging pedagogical practice and organisational skills.