217.515 Pasifika Theology
Course Outline

NQF Level: 5
Credit Value: 15

COURSE DESCRIPTION

To explore how theology is done contextually in the Pacific region through the examination of Pacific concepts, stories, and socio-politico-economic structures of life. The understanding developed provides a foundation for shaping Pacific ministries based on biblical interpretation, theological reflection, and religious practice.

LEARNING OUTCOMES

By the end of this course the learner should be able to:

1. Evaluate theological and biblical foundations that shape Pasifika theologies.
2. Appraise expressions of Pasifika theologies in their cultural contexts.
3. Apply Pasifika theologies to a ministry and/or community context.
